

Release of New YouTube of Anthony Kearns Singing "Danny Boy" In Time for
St. Patrick's Day on March 17, 2012

WASHINGTON, DC - New video clips from world renowned Tenor Anthony Kearns' solo performance on October 20, 2011 in Washington, D.C. are now available on YouTube in time to celebrate the St. Patrick's Day season. (Click here to watch the videos)

"I am pleased to share these videos of my performance at the New Zealand Embassy on YouTube, just in time to celebrate the festive Irish season. 'Danny Boy' is certainly my favorite because its been with me since the beginning," said Kearns.

The newly-release YouTube videos come from a musical charity-reception hosted by the New Zealand Embassy and the ONE Campaign to benefit the USO and the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund on October 20, 2011.

Others songs to be released are:

- "Pokarekare Ana" - A beautiful New Zealand love, which Kearns sings in the Maori language.
- "I'll Be Seeing You" - A classic song by Sir Noel Coward.
- "Empty Chairs at Empty Tables" from the musical, Les Misérables.
- "Friendship" - Written by longtime accompanist Patrick Healy, sung in a duet with Mr. Kearns.

Mr. Kearns, a founding member of The Irish Tenors, possesses perhaps the largest Irish repertoire of any performing artist. He is a respected ambassador of Ireland to the world and has presented the music of his homeland across the globe. He frequently performs for charity concerts, on television, and has performed in many of the most prestigious venues in American, among them: Carnegie Hall, Radio City Music Hall, Madison Square Garden, The Hollywood Bowl, and on the grounds of the Capitol on the Fourth of July and at the funeral of President Ronald W. Reagan. He and the Irish Tenors recently performed at a peace award ceremony for former Prime Minister Tony Blair hosted by former President Bill Clinton. He is a member of the GRAMMYS.
