

Tenor Anthony Kearns to Sing at Maryland Democratic Party's Inaugural Ball Hosted by Gov. Martin O'Malley

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Jan. 20, 2013 -- On Sunday, January 20, famed Irish Tenor Anthony Kearns will perform at the Maryland Democratic Party's Ball to celebrate President Obama and Vice President Biden's second Inaugural. The sold-out gala will be held at the Gaylord Hotel in National Harbor, from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Said Mr. Kearns: "I'm delighted to perform at what will be a superb Presidential Inaugural Ball as the guest of Gov. Martin O'Malley, a great Irish-American. It's exciting to be a part of this patriotic moment in American history."

Expected to attend the Ball are Governor Martin O'Malley, Senator Barbara Mikulski, Senator Ben Cardin, Lt. Governor Anthony Brown, House Democratic Whip Steny Hoyer, Representative Elijah Cummings, Representative John Delaney, Representative Donna Edwards, Representative John Sarbanes, Representative Chris Van Hollen, Howard County Executive Ken Ulman, Prince George's County Executive Rushern Baker, and MDP Chair Yvette Lewis.

The ball will also feature entertainment by The Spinners. A custom Inaugural cake will be provided by Charm City Cakes - as seen on Food Network's "Ace of Cakes."

Mr. Kearns is the original founding member of The Irish Tenors, with whom he has ten best-selling CDs and 5 PBS Specials. Kearns is a frequent performer on television and with the finest symphony orchestras and opera houses in Europe and America. He is a member of The GRAMMYs (The Recording Academy). Mr. Kearns' appearance was arranged by Kirsten Fedewa & Associates, L.L.C.
